

Results of the 2013 HKDSE

Our students have achieved admirable results in the second HKDSE exam this year. Most of our students have attained excellent performance in all subjects. The percentages of our students getting Level 4 or above in the four core subjects of Chinese, English, Mathematics and Liberal Studies are well above those of the day-school candidates. Besides the outstanding performance of our students in the core subjects, our students also obtained brilliant results in other elective subjects, excelling particularly in Science and Mathematics. Lau Chun Wai of S6D attained remarkable results of Level 5 in four subjects and Level 5* in two subjects.

The overall performance of our students was exceptionally good. The percentages of our students attaining Level two or above are well above those of the day-school candidates in Hong Kong.

Subjects with Level 4 or above having percentages higher than those of day-school candidates

English Language; Chinese Language, Mathematics (Compulsory Part); Mathematics (Extended Part – Calculus & Statistics); Mathematics (Extended part – Algebra & Calculus); Liberal Studies, Economics, Geography; Tourism and Hospitality Studies; Business, Accounting and Financial Studies; Information and Communication Technology; Biology; Chemistry; Combined Science; Physics; and Visual Arts.

Subjects with Level 5 – 5 having percentages higher than those of day-school candidates

Liberal Studies; Mathematics (Compulsory Part); Mathematics (Extended part – Algebra & Calculus); Biology; Chemistry; Physics; Business, Accounting and Financial Studies; Chinese Literature; Information and Communication Technology; Tourism and Hospitality Studies; and Visual Arts.

Our teachers and students will continue to do their best in pursuing excellence.