

Results of the 2014 HKDSE

Our students have achieved admirable results in the third HKDSE exam this year. Some students even have excellent performance in all subjects. The overall performance of our students was exceptionally good. The percentages of our students attaining Level 2 or above are well above those of the day-school candidates in Hong Kong.

Our teachers and students will continue to do their best in pursuing excellence.