Miss Choi Mei Fung

Our group had an interview with Miss Choi. She is the Chinese teacher of S1B and S1C. She is also the Liberal Studies teacher of S4B.

When Miss Choi was a Secondary One student, her dream was to be a teacher. To make her dream come true, she studied very hard and she joined many activities. Finally, her dream comes true.

Miss Choi had got an idol when she was young. She is her sister. When Miss Choi was a F.3 student, she had a big problem. Her sister helped her to solve the problem. Also, when Miss Choi had some problems in her studies of Mathematics, her sister helped her because she is an accountant.

After the interview, we have learned more about Miss Choi. She is very nice. We think this activity is good for us as we have learned a lot of things. We will always remember Miss Choi’s encouragement, ‘Don’t give up, keep on trying!’

We interviewed Miss Hwong Yuk Yiu. She teaches 2A, 2B, 2E Junior Science and Form 4 and Form 5 Physics. She is a nice and patient teacher.

When Miss Hwong was a Secondary One student, she enjoyed her school life though it was a bit uneasy to adapt to a new school. She was so lucky to have met some good teachers who were helpful and caring. Her teachers also helped her set goals. With the assistance of the teachers, her goals came true.

When she was our age, she did not have any specific idols whom she learnt from. She did admire her teachers very much. Setting goals is a good practice which still helps her now.

At the end of the interview, Miss Hwong gave us some suggestions or tips on setting goals. We should make a timetable for studying and playing. It is very useful to help set goals for our future. It has been really interesting to interview Miss Hwong and we feel so grateful for her help.
The Interview with Miss Lai Sum Wah

Miss Lai is the Vice Principal of our school. She teaches S4 and S5 Economics this year.

Ms. Lai told us that if we want to make our dreams come true, we should set goals and plan for them when we are young. When Miss Lai was in secondary school, she took the opportunity to travel around the world and visited many places. This widened her horizons. She set her goal to be a teacher when she was in secondary school. She studied hard and got a university degree. She has become a teacher and her dream has come true.

She had a role model that she learned from when she was our age. That’s her elder sister who is now a doctor. When her sister was young, she had quite a strong determination to be a doctor. She studied hard and read a lot of books. Miss Lai thinks it is better to find goals which we are interested in. She also reminds us to get to know more about ourselves. With a strong determination, our dreams will finally come true.

A profile of Miss Lai Wai Han

Miss Lai teaches S1, S2 and S6 History. She also teaches S5 Liberal Studies this year.

Miss Lai set a goal and had a dream when she was a Secondary One student. She wanted to get good results and made more friends. Miss Lai had these goals because she wanted her parents to be proud of her good results. Also, she needed friends to share with her joy and sadness. Her dream came true. She studied very hard and she got good results. She was nice to people so she had lots of friends.

Miss Lai has an idol that is her mother. She said that her mother was happy all the time. She likes her positive attitude towards life. Her mother encourages her to read more and advises her to be more outgoing.

Miss Lai gave us some final suggestions and tips to help us set goals. She stressed that we should first listen to our heart and think about what we really want before setting any goals. Then, we should jot down our goals and keep them in mind. The most important thing to do after that would be to work hard for our dreams. We should never be afraid of failures. She told us that endurance helps us a lot in achieving our goals.

Interview with Miss Wong Yen

We interviewed Ms. Wong Yen. She teaches Secondary One to Secondary Six students Music, Secondary One to Secondary Three Putonghua and Secondary One Liberal Studies.

She wanted to be a teacher when she was a Secondary One student. She had the goal because she met a good teacher when she was a Secondary One student. The teacher was great and knew a lot of things. Finally, Ms. Wong’s dream comes true because she set a clear goal, worked very hard towards it and did not give up when she encountered difficulties.

She has learnt a lot from her parents. They taught her how to manage time. Her father was a teacher and he taught her how to be a good teacher too.

Ms. Wong encourages us to try our best to meet our goals. We should ask people whom we trust for help if we meet problems.

After the interview, we know more about Ms. Wong. She is an organized person. We think this activity is useful for us because it can improve our English. We hope that we can have more opportunity interviewing other teachers.
Interview with Miss Wu Po Yin

Our group had an interview with Ms. Wu. She is the Mathematics teacher of 4B, 5C and 5E this year. When Ms. Wu was a Secondary One student, she wanted to study in the university. With better education, she could have a well-paid job that she could do many things she liked, such as buying a flat and travelling.

Ms. Wu made her goal come true after she graduated. She thinks it is a hard task to make her goal come true. However, she did not give up. In order to meet her goal, she studied very hard and did a lot of exercises. Also, she listened to or watched the English programmes on the radio or T.V. and read the newspapers every day.

One of Ms. Wu’ secondary school teachers was her idol when she was our age. Ms. Wu said that her teacher told her to study more and be hard working. Finally, Ms. Wu gave us some suggestions. We should set a goal but it cannot be too high. The goal we set must be something that we can achieve. If we can take more challenges, we can modify our goal to be a bit higher.

After the interview, we have learned more about Ms. Wu. She is very kind and gives us a lot of suggestions to improve our English. We also can learn many things from her experience. We think this activity is a good opportunity for us to practise our English because we seldom use English to talk to other people outside the classroom in our daily life. So it is an unforgettable and a valuable experience.

Interview with Mr. Chan Kin Hang

We are a group of 1A students. We interviewed Mr. Chan Kin Hang. Mr. Chan teaches Secondary One, Four and Six students Liberal Studies this year.

When Mr. Chan was a Secondary One student, he did not have any dreams. He only wanted to focus on his studies.

Mr. Chan had an idol when he was in Secondary One. His idol was his History teacher because he was very handsome and kind. Mr. Chan also told us some ways and tips to do much better in the examination. We need to listen to the teachers in the lessons and read every day.

After this interview, we think Mr. Chan is a very kind and good teacher. When we interviewed him, he asked us many questions about our studies. He has also taught us some examination skills which are useful. We have learnt so many things in this interview.
A profile of Mr. Fung King Hong

Mr. Fung has been teaching in this school for a long time. He teaches S.1 Mathematics and Computer. He said he was a poor student and had not got a computer at home when he was young. Without the temptation of the computer games, he behaved well and studied hard. He set a timetable that he did revision every day after finishing his homework. In his spare time, he played ball games with his friends. He worked hard for his dream of becoming a doctor.

Although his dream did not come true because of his weak English, he did not give up. He has a good father who is very considerate and supportive. His father was very busy, but he still chatted with him about his school life every day. He taught him how to face difficulties and encouraged him to solve them.

Mr. Fung also gave us some advice for setting our goals. He repeatedly mentioned that we needed to set our own goals clearly. It is important to modify them according to our abilities from time to time besides working hard to achieve them.

Mr. Ip Ting Wa

Mr. Ip teaches S1 and S2 Mathematics this year. We asked him about his dream. When Mr. Ip was young, he wanted to be a teacher. During his secondary school life, his classmates liked asking him questions and seeking help from him whenever they were in trouble. Mr. Ip was happy to be able to help them.

Mr. Ip met his goal he set in secondary school. He worked very hard to further his studies at the university and spent most of his spare time on reading. Finally, he becomes a teacher!

Mr. Ip admires his S.1 class teacher very much. She was his role model when he was in secondary school. She is so responsible and helpful that she spent lots of her free time helping those weak learners after school. Moreover, she always encouraged students to participate in some meaningful extra-curricular activities which helped develop their potentials.

At the end of the interview, Mr. Ip gave us some suggestions on setting goals. He advised us to know more about ourselves and our interests. Mr. Ip’s advice is very helpful to us. We hope we can have more opportunities to interview other teachers.
Mr. Ko Yeung Wai

Mr. Ko is a nice teacher. He teaches Combined Science (Chemistry) and Chemistry in 5A, 5B, 5C, 5D.

When Mr. Ko was a Secondary One student, he wanted to make more friends so that he could have someone to play with. Also, he wanted to get good results in the examinations. His goals were partly successful. He has still kept in touch with some friends he made since secondary school years.

When Mr. Ko was our age, he had many idols, such as Leslie Cheung, Alan Tam, Chan Bo Chu. He likes their songs but he can’t sing as great as they can. Apart from singing, he learned a lot from the good qualities of each of his idols.

Mr. Ko suggests us to be nicer to people around so as to make more friends. He also reminds us to take actions for our dreams. If we just simply keep our goals in mind, they will never come true.

1D  4  Chan Ying Tung
1D  16  Law Kwan Ling
1D  17  Lee Ka Ying
Our Principal, Mr. Lam Ka Yiu

Mr. Lam is the principal of Tseung Kwan O Government Secondary School. We have the honour of interviewing Mr. Lam.

When Mr. Lam was a secondary school student, he wanted to be a scientist. He was interested in learning the phenomena of the universe. Mr. Lam did not reach the goal. When he studied Mathematics in the university, he changed his mind. He wanted to be a Mathematics teacher.

Mr. Lam had an idol when he was in secondary school. He is Albert Einstein who received the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1921. He learnt from Albert Einstein to have the curiosity to explore things around him, the perseverance to focus on the present and the spirit of ‘never give up’.

Mr. Lam gave us three suggestions at the end. First, be realistic. We should set our goals based on our own talent and present development. Second, we have to persevere with what we intend to get. Last, we should focus on the present. We cannot ride two horses at the same time because by not concentrating, we will achieve nothing.

After this interview, we have learnt more about our Principal. His suggestions are very valuable for us to achieve our goals.
A profile of Mr. Lee Lam

Mr. Lee is the class teacher of 5C this year. He teaches Principles of Accounts and has been teaching in TKOGSS for over 10 years.

When Mr. Lee was a Secondary One student, he set his goal of furthering his studies at the university. When we asked him why he had such a goal, he smiled and said, “I had this goal because I wanted to make successful contribution to society.”

After graduating from the university, he became a teacher. He met his goal to contribute what he has learned. When we asked him how he did it, he gave us some suggestions. First, we should be very attentive in the lessons. After class, we should try our best to do homework and revision. Reading extensively is also very important.

Mr. Lee had a role model that he learnt from when he was our age. He loved the Movie Star, Jacky Chan, very much. Jacky Chan works very hard and never gives up whenever he meets any difficulties. Also, he would try his best on every piece of work. Mr. Lee has learnt a lot from him.

Mr. Lee thinks the most important thing for us to set goals is to know what we like most. With interest, we would be more motivated to work towards our goals. His advice is very helpful for us.

1D  2  Chan Ching Lui
1D  3  Chan Ching Pui

Mr. Wong Tung Choi

Mr. Wong is a Christian. He teaches Science in S1, Computer Literacy from S1 to S3 and ICT in S4.

When Mr. Wong was a S1 student, he didn’t think much about what he would be. When he was in S5, he failed in a test. His teachers taught him patiently after lessons. He still remembers what his teachers told him, “With our help, you may help others.” After that, he set a goal to be a teacher.

His dream comes true! He studied hard and got good results. He could further his studies in the university after his secondary school years. He always read books, newspaper and magazines which widened his horizons and improved his languages in both English and Chinese throughout his university years.

Mr. Wong admires his father very much who is hard working and kind to everyone. Besides his father, he thinks Doctor Shun Yat Sin, who is the Father of modern China, is also his role model. Doctor Shun had a strong mission that he led Chinese people to a modern China.

Finally, Mr. Wong advises us to set goals for ourselves. We need to know more about ourselves, our interests and develop our passion on everything, even something we do not like. We should also tell our friends, parents and someone we trust of our goals so they can encourage us whenever we feel frustrated and want to give up.
Mr. Yeung Cheong Chun

When Mr. Yeung was a Secondary One student, he wanted to become a tennis player because his uncle liked playing tennis and he learned from his uncle tennis skills. After some time, he liked this sport. However, Mr. Yeung did not make his dream come true because he did not have enough practice, though he kept practising tennis twice a week at the university. He finally chose to be a good teacher.

Mao Zedong was Mr. Yeung’s role model when he was our age. Mao was very strong in leading the ‘Cultural Revolution’. Therefore, Mr. Yeung has learnt from him the importance of will power and determination.

Mr. Yeung suggests that we should consider and decide what we should and should not do. Once we set our goal, we should work very hard to achieve it.

After the interview, we know more about Mr. Yeung. He is nice and shows his passion for studying Chinese. We think this activity is very useful because we have learnt a lot of things from him.
Mrs. Leung Lui King, our Vice Principal

Our group had an interview with our Vice Principal, Mrs. Leung Lui King. Mrs. Leung teaches S2A, S2E and S4A Geography.

She told us that her idol is her mother. Her mother did not have any chance to study as she needed to take care of her brother and sister when she was young. Though she was not educated, she always tries her best to do things well. However, because of her lack of education, she still meets some problems in her daily life. She cannot easily distinguish the bus number for she cannot read much. Therefore Mrs. Leung understands at a young age that she needs to learn more things so as to have a better life. In her free time, Mrs. Leung will learn modern dance because she thinks modern dance can help her relax.

Mrs. Leung reminded us that we need to work hard and read more. More importantly, she told us that we should aim at a higher target. If you get a “B”, next time you should aim at getting an “A”. If we aim high and try hard, we will be very successful.
Interview with Miss Chan Wai Ngor

Our group interviewed Mrs. Chan Wai Ngor in November 2013. She is the Science teacher of Secondary One and Chemistry teacher of Secondary Three and Six.

When Mrs. Chan was a Secondary One student, she wanted to go to the university. However, her English was not very good. Luckily, she had a good teacher to teach her English. She listened to the teacher carefully in the lessons and talked to her classmates in English. She worked very hard before the tests and examinations. She would get up early to read and prepare what she would learn on that day before going to school. Besides, she would go to the library to read different types of books. With her hard work, Mrs. Chan’s dream came true.

Mrs. Chan’s father is her idol. It is because Mrs. Chan’s father is a hardworking man. He has good temper and never gets angry. Mrs. Chan suggests that we should set a short-term target such as getting high marks in tests. We can set a time table and do the things according to our plan.

We would like to thank Mrs. Chan for giving us useful tips to set goals for our future. It was so interesting interviewing her and she has been very helpful.

An Interview with Ms. Cheung Sin Ting

We interviewed Ms. Cheung. She teaches 5C, 6B and 6E Liberal Studies and 1A Mathematics this year.

When Ms. Cheung was a Secondary One student, her dream was to be a scientist because she likes science very much. To fulfil her dream, Ms. Cheung chose to study Science at the university. Ms. Cheung does not become a scientist, instead she becomes a teacher.

Ms. Cheung has got a role model to learn from. He is Ms. Cheung’s Science teacher. He is very nice, kind and professional. Ms. Cheung has learnt a lot from him.

Ms. Cheung shared her tips of success with us. She suggests us do more exercises and be more confident.

After the interview, we know more about Ms. Cheung. She is a nice and hardworking teacher. We think this activity is a meaningful activity because we have learnt a lot from this activity and we have improved our English.

Interview with Ms. Poon Po Wa

Last week, we interviewed our school teacher, Ms. Poon. Let us tell you something about her. Ms. Poon teaches 5D and 6E Chinese, she also teaches 4B, 5D and 6E Aesthetic Education.

Ms. Poon wanted to be a teacher when she was in secondary school. Why? When Ms. Poon was in primary school, she broke her leg. She had stayed in the hospital for three months. The nurse took good care of her and she thought that they were like angels. She thought teaching is a job which is very similar to nursing. So finally, she decided to help people by being a teacher.

Ms. Poon has a special idol – her Secondary One class teacher. Her class teacher helped her a lot and taught her a lot of things.

Ms. Poon asked us to read different types of books so that we can learn more new things. If we do that, we will know how to write different types of texts, such as, poems, and stories. As a result, we can write better and we may even become a writer when we grow up.

We hope you can know more about Ms. Poon through our interview report.

Interview with Ms. Woo Kai Ping

Ms. Woo teaches Secondary 6, Secondary 3 Physics and Secondary 2 Junior Science this year.

When Ms. Woo was a Secondary One student, her dream was to study in the university because she wanted to learn more new things. She thought that she must get at least the first or second in the examination in order to make her dream come true. So, she thought studying hard was the most important thing to do. At last, she succeeded.

Ms. Woo learned a lot from her favourite idol when she was our age. Her idol is Chen Ping. At first, people thought Chen was not smart so they did not like him. However, he thought working hard was very important so he tried his very best and people started to admire him. So, Ms. Woo agrees that working hard is important.

Ms. Woo suggests that we can write our idol’s name or their mottos on a piece of paper so that we can be encouraged to work hard like them and achieve our goals. Also, we can learn some good things from the idol.

After we interviewed Ms. Woo, we think we should study and work hard. If we work hard, we can succeed. Also, we think what Ms. Woo told us is very useful. We thank Ms. Woo very much because she spent her time on completing this interview.

Thank you, Ms. Woo! We hope we can have more chance to talk to you!
